

A FRIEND

said recently, "I buy all my boy's clothes now with what I save on my own." He used to have all his clothes made-to-order, but now he has learned that a certain make of ready-to-wear garments will give him all that he can ask for in style and durability.

He always looks for this label.

and when he finds it, he knows he is safe, and buys.

If you are not familiar with this make of clothes, come in and we will take pleasure in demonstrating their superiority over any other make of ready-to-wear garments, and show you how you can dress in the most modest or extreme style at small cost.

In HATS and HABERDASHERY, too, we can give you some money-saving hints.

DAVIS GETS A TURN DOWN

His Threats Fail to Move Judge
Estee.

George Davis brought forth the transition ghost again yesterday in a threat in the United States circuit court that he would ask for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Osaki Mankicho, which is now on appeal in the United States supreme court. Davis was quieted somewhat by Judge Estee's stern rejoinder that the matter wasn't before the court, and refused to consider it upon Davis' informal but strenuous application.

The habeas corpus attorney told the court that he would ask either for another writ or else that the bail of $5,000 be reduced so that he could get some one to go on Mankicho's bond. Davis intimated that due diligence was not being exercised by the authorities here in disposing of the case, as another term of the supreme court was being allowed to pass without any attempt to bring the matter up. Judge Estee was not to be moved, however, and said he would not consider the matter until it was brought up in a regular way.

As a matter of fact Attorney General Dole was notified over a month ago that the case would not be taken up at Washington until after the new Justice, Oliver Wendell Holmes, had taken his seat, which cannot be until after the Senate approves his appointment at the December session.

ART LEAGUE
GETTING READY

A Photographic Exhibit Will
Be Given Late This Season.

Working members of the Kilohana Art League are busily preparing the program, pictorial, literary, musical and dramatic, for the ensuing year. The annual meeting for election of officers and new members will take place at 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon at the League rooms. In addition to the canvases which Mr. Hitchcock brought home from his outing on the other side of this island, it is believed that his present visit in Hilo will be productive of some interesting work.

The varied talents of Mrs. May Mott-Smith Bird will be very much missed in the League, but she has promised to send from time to time evidences of her art study now being pursued in Florence. Mrs. Bird left on the walls of the Pacific Hardware rooms some charming water color Hawaiian scenes which only need to be viewed to be greatly enjoyed.

Theo. Wores too will be missed this season from art circles and the exhibition, but local members are at work to make the semi-annual view a good one, and are preparing their canvases to be in by November 15.

A photographic exhibit later in the season and several new features are under consideration for the coming year among League members.

A New Cane Refuse Fuel.

It is quite probable that bagasse could be successfully used in the manufacture of paper, but it is a question if it is not more valuable for fuel. Besides bagasse, there is another waste at sugar mills, the refuse molasses. Some unsuccessful attempts have heretofore been made to utilize this molasses, which contains considerable carbon, as fuel.

A series of experiments is being made at Puunene mill by Mr. J. N. S. Williams, chief engineer, which bids fair to solve the problem. Instead of using crude molasses for fuel he mixes a sufficient per cent of molasses with bagasse to make a stronger and more durable fuel than bagasse alone. It is believed by some who have examined the fuel thus prepared that the bagasse produced on Maui, properly mixed with waste molasses, may eventually prove a fuel which will supersede both coal and oil.—Maui News.

Kerr Case Submitted.

In the case of M. Rosenberg vs. W. R. Hoare, the evidence was finished yesterday and the matter was taken under advisement by Judge Estee. Mr. Hoare, on the witness stand testified that he did not order all the goods given to the sailors. Witnesses were also put on by the defendant to show that the clothing was not worth as much as charged in the bill.

HAWAIIAN GAZETTE CO.

The book in the upper left hand corner is called an Extra Russia with patent back. It is a substantial binding and the usual style for first class work. The one in the centre shows how the patent back throws the book open flat. The one in the lower right hand corner is called a Full Russia with patent back. It is suitable for those wishing something more stylish than an Extra Russia. We also manufacture any other style desired, such as quarter bound, half bound, three-quarter bound, full bound, etc., on short notice. Every book guaranteed.
